i wanna love somebody

We Three

I think I'm gonna die alone
All I get to wear is funeral clothes
Watch me while I decompose
It's sad, but true you know I'm gonna die alone

I figured it out while I'm in the ground there's no kinda lining
Just laying around and counting the cracks all in the ceiling
Just fooling around and breaking it down to find a meaning

I opened my mouth and you shut me down you said you were leaving
Two and two-you're an ass, see I can do math it's not appealing
Didn't think this would last no longer than that you need your sleeping

I think I'm gonna die alone
All I get to wear is funeral clothes
Watch me while I decompose
It's sad, but true you know I'm gonna die alone

I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody

It's getting bad I'm stressing a tad, I don't take it lightly
Two dates were at I'm calling your dad I said it politely
But it made you mad, you said it was fast yeah, maybe just slightly

Yeah, she's coming to me looking right through me I feel it too often
But honestly I just wanna give up and get in my coffin
Put on my suit, don't bear any fruit and be forgotten

I think I'm gonna die alone
All I get to wear is funeral clothes
Watch me while I decompose
It's sad, but true you know I'm gonna die alone
Just leave the flowers there on my tombstone
I'm losing feeling in my toes
It's sad, but true you know I'm gonna die alone

I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody

I wear a little way too much cologne
To try and cover the smell of me alone
But I don't see a reason to postpone
Might as well just go to my tombstone

I wear a little way too much cologne
To try and cover the smell of me alone
But I don't see a reason to postpone

I think I'm gonna die alone
All I get to wear is funeral clothes
Watch me while I decompose
It's sad, but true you know I'm gonna die alone

I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
I wanna love somebody
...
