

Damn I Do

Whitney Duncan

Another Friday night
Same old drinks from somewhere new
But you wouldn't lie
Somewhere you never walk into

So I start throwing 'em back
Saying don't [?] looking back
Don't wanna be worrying 'bout where you're at

'Cause I don't wanna walk, I want you to come over
I don't wanna walk, or wake up on your shoulder
Don't wanna want you to want me to
Find a way to just walk away from you
[?] call
Wanna kiss you up and down the hall
Shouldn't even want you at all
But damn I do
Damn I do

Thought I'd be okay
Thought if I saw you I could turn you down
Till I saw your face
Looking at me the way you're looking right now

So we start throwing 'em back, and you start taking me back
Why you gotta make me feel like that? Oh, whoa

I don't wanna walk, I want you to come over
I don't wanna walk, or wake up on your shoulder
Don't wanna want you to want me to
Find a way to just walk away from you
[?] call
Wanna kiss you up and down the hall
Shouldn't even want you at all
But damn I do
Damn I do, yeah

I don't wanna walk, I want you to come over
I don't wanna walk, or wake up on your shoulder

I don't wanna walk, I want you to come over
I don't wanna walk, or wake up on your shoulder
Don't wanna want you to want me to
Find a way to just walk away from you
[?] call
Wanna kiss you up and down the hall
Shouldn't even want you at all
But damn I do
But damn I do, oh-oh-oh

But damn I do
