

Homesick

Whitney Duncan

Last night rolling through my head, I'm Floatin' in this feather bed
We can call in sick if you want to, don't you?
Wish it wasn't 8:05
Wish I didn't have to say goodbye
Just do you thing, I won't stop you, 'cause

I'll be sendin' you a pic from a bubble bath
Toes on the edge with a full glass
Of rosé, all day
I can't keep you home, but hey

I'll keep you homesick
There ain't no doubt about it
You'll wish that you were staying
By the way I'll leave you hangin'
On a slow kiss
Shirt halfway off my shoulder
'Cause if I don't get to hold ya
At least I'll get to know

I'll keep you homesick
I'll keep you homesick

Gonna toss a little vinyl on
A little "come and get me" song
Slidin' round in sock in the kitchen, listen
I can't really help it, baby, if I stay
Dancin' all around in your head all day
I know you know what you're missin'

You're fixing to be homesick
There ain't no doubt about it
You'll wish that you were staying
By the way I'll leave you hangin'
On a slow kiss
Shirt halfway off my shoulder
'Cause if I don't get to hold ya
At least I'll get to know

I'll keep you homesick
I'll keep you homesick

I'll be sendin' you a pic from a bubble bath
Toes on the edge with a full glass
Of rosé, all day
I can't keep you home, but hey

I'll keep you homesick
There ain't no doubt about it
You'll wish that you were staying
By the way I'll leave you hangin'
On a slow kiss
Shirt halfway off my shoulder
'Cause if I don't get to hold ya
At least I'll get to know

I'll keep you homesick
I'll keep you homesick, yeah, whoa
I'll keep you homesick, you know, you know
I'll keep you homesick
