Spiders (Kidsmoke)

Wilco

Spiders are singing in the salty breeze Spiders are filling out tax returns Spinning out webs of deductions and melodies On a private beach in Michigan

Why can't they wish their kisses good Why do they miss when their kisses should Fly like winging birds fighting for the keys On a private beach in Michigan

This recent rash of kidsmoke All these telescopic poems It's good to be alone

Why can't they say what they want Why can't they just say what they mean Come clean, listen and talk Hello private callers, IDs blocked

The sun will rise, we'll climb into cars
The future has a valley and a shortcut around
Who will wear the crown of drowning award
Hold a private light on a Michigan shore

You fool me with a kiss of kidsmoke From a microscopic home
It's good to be alone

I'll be in my bed You can be the stone That raises from the dead And carries us all home

There's no blood on my hands I just do as I am told
