

The World Is Crazy

will.i.am

I think everybody in the world has lost their mind
I believe they lost something they cannot find
Cause everybody is going crazy
And everybody is out their goddamn mind.

I don't wanna watch the news to see no bad news,
Don't wanna be glued to the Youtube,
I ain't paying no attention to no sick dude,
Eat them people up like his child needs food.
Killer mommas storing babies in the dumpsters,
Ain't no education for our little youngsters
Politicians operate with no structure,
You're working dirty, that's why we don't trust you.
Everybody just wanna be famous,
Whiling on the internet, acting all shameless,
Yesterday the motherfucker was nameless,
Now they're on the talkshow, ain't really same shit.

Everybody just following a blind man,
Buying water for the motherfucker sandman,
Hoping in the ocean, looking for Bin Laden's body.
The world's going crazy.

I think everybody in the world has lost their mind
I believe they lost something they cannot find
Cause everybody is going crazy
And everybody is out their goddamn mind.

I asked my momma what the hell is really going on,
She said the world's too cold, keep your coat on.
I heard a priest tell a lie at the podium,
The whole world in a state of pandemonium.
Don't wait for an answer, it ain't coming soon,
They pick cause is killing like it's hot new AK47 in the classroom, kids killing each other like it's cartoon.
Everybody unemployed, no education for the kids got me so annoyed,
They put the money in the prison like they're paranoid,
They put the Bible down to pick up the tabloid.

We're all following a blind man,
Buying water for the motherfucker sandman,
Hoping in the ocean, looking for Bin Laden's body.
The world's going crazy.

I think everybody in the world has lost their mind
I believe they lost something they cannot find
Cause everybody is going crazy
And everybody is out their goddamn mind.
