

Hate Culture

William Control

Welcome to my world
Now you can stop believing
All the lies you think are true
So cunning and deceiving
A gift I've made for you
Wrapped in love and misery
My confessions far from used
I've only died sometime last century

Demons walk the earth
While angels stay in heaven
Some might say it's worse
I don't care how you fooled ten million
This gift I've made to haunt
While searching for infinity
Some might say I'm wrong
I say it's my own destiny

Let's take a chance
Let's take a chance
Let's all take a chance
On something strange

Hate this culture I don't see
Hate this culture I don't breathe in
Hate this culture I don't see
Hate this culture I don't live in
