William Control

From Hell, the violence of life, the pain we must endure.
From Hell, the violence of life, the finest cruelty.

How does it feel, knowing that the dead surround you, not suffering?
How do you smile, in this graveyard of lonely boxes and exile?

From Hell, the violence of life, the pain we must endure.
From Hell, the violence of life the finest cruelty.

How does it feel, when you press your skin against my skin, in the darkness?
I see you smile, my hand wrapped around your throat in style.

All we feel is fear.

We will fall to the violent sins in the night (We fall we fall into the night)
We will fall to the violent sins in the night (The new romantic boys are here)
We will fall to the violent sins in the night (We fall we fall into the night)
We will fall to the violent sins in the night (The new romantic boys are here)

From Hell, the violence of life, the pain we must endure.
From Hell, the violence of life, the finest cruelty

You say I am a child of god.
Some claim the devils hand.
Oh Lucifer, what have you done to this man?

We will fall to the violent sins in the night (We fall we fall into the night)
We will fall to the violent sins in the night (The new romantic boys are here)
We will fall to the violent sins in the night (We fall we fall into the night)
We will fall to the violent sins in the night (The new romantic boys are here)

We fall, we fall into the night,
I gave my heart you gave me fear.
We fall, we fall into the night,
New romantic boys are here.

We fall, we fall into the night,
I give my heart you give me fear.

We fall, we fall into the night,
New romantic boys are here.
