

The Velvet Warms and Binds

William Control

This is not a game we play
This is our reality
This is not a game we play
Oh, oh in the fire of the night
Would you stay?
Oh, in the fire of the night
Would you stay?

This is not a game we play
You fall on your knees to feel
This is not a life to choose
Decision is made for you
You can find your voice within
The terror and fear will break
Here and now the tears will fall
Oh, take you home
Yeah, in the fire of the night
Would you stay?

I want a violating act of sin
You can penetrate, lets begin
How will you love me?
How will you show mercy?
You can violate filth within
You can suffocate, let's begin
How will you love me?
How will you show mercy?
My silence

This is not a game we play
Oh, I will make you feel alive
The mask of fear
Is falling away this night
You sacrifice, you learn
You honor the code, you serve
You die before you turn
You follow or you burn
Oh, in the fire of the night
Would you stay?

I want a violating act of sin
You can penetrate, lets begin
How will you love me?
How will you show mercy?
You can violate filth within
You can suffocate, let's begin
How will you love me?
How will you show mercy?

You've got a place to go
Where flesh is currency
And safe words don't mean a thing
The velvet envelops
You've got a place to go
Where flesh will make you queen
And safe words don't mean a thing
The velvet warms and binds your love

The velvet warms and binds your love

The velvet warms and binds

The velvet warms and binds around us
