

There's a breeze in the midnight air
Eyes are weary but still I stare
Atop a tower I hold my watch
For planets in line and suns that burst

Aaaarrrgh... Bring forth the undoing of this world
Ba'al, Lord, claim thy prize!!

The sky is never what it seems
Stars align, the end of time
The Beasts' they live inside your dreams
There's a full moon rising

The sky is never what it seems
Stars align, the end of time
The Beasts' they live inside your dreams
There's a full moon rising

Studies burn the midnight oil
Over charts and algebra I pour
My work parades the signs from God
Come save thy servant, oh Ba'al!

Come forth the signs beyond our Earth
Blessed Ba'al and Marduk, for thee I search

The sky is never what it seems
Stars align, the end of time
The Beasts' they live inside your dreams
There's a full moon rising

The sky is never what it seems
Stars align, the end of time
The Beasts' they live inside your dreams
There's a full moon rising
