

Alone ... but you're feeling alright
It's a lie, you're feeling good because

Strange men want you to
Easy way to run away from yourself
It's a lie, no-one gets out of here alive

And everyone feels happy
Everyone feels great
Today ... walking through these gates
Wake up my dear ... it's killing day

Betrayed and kissed goodbye
Live your life, don't think about the reasons for it all
Following the line that never ends
The moon is looking down at fool's who always fail

And everyone feels happy...
