

Flickering Flame

Wolves At The Gate

(Oh, I wanted to see a fire ablaze in my heart
A flame not full of smoke)

I know Your love is a fire
(Why am I so cold?)
My flesh it screams: "You're a liar"
(Those cries are so old)
The smoke ascends, the embers dim
(Just follow its trail)
Help me I'm weak and so frail

I'm waiting for a reaction (and the motions in between)
I'm looking for You /x2

Looking for You

(You!)

(Every night I watch and wait as my candle's burning out
Every night I scream and shout as my patience turns to doubt
Stay with Me, my flickering flame
Stay with Me, I know your name
Quit your fight, it's all in vain
When your flame takes flight, it lasts the pouring rain)

I'm waiting, flame smoking, and fading out
I'm fading, withering, will I weather?
I'm waiting, sustain me, help me weather
I'm fading, flame smoking, flickering and fading out

(Oh, I wanted to feel the fire before mine goes out
A flame so bright it blinds)

I'm waiting for a reaction (and the motions in between)
I'm looking for You, right now
I'm waiting for a reaction (and the motions in between)
I'm looking for You

Stay with Me flickering flame, I know you're name (x2)
Every night I'll watch and wait as my candle's burning out
Every night I'm filled with doubt I will cry to You and shout
