

happy people

Wrabel

I'm so so restless all the time, always telling lies
Like yeah okay I'm fine, sun is always shining
If there is a party, I'm always invited
I'm always invited

I've got way way too many friends who ain't really my friends
And I'm tryna fit in but I can't keep up with them
I'm back in bed again on a Friday
On a Friday night

So I hide away, hide away from it all
Hide away cos I'm safe behind these walls
Hide away, hide away
Yeah, I hide away, hide away

I wish, I wish I was one of those happy people
One of those easy breezy, fucking people
I wish, I wish I was one of those happy people
Smiling every time they see you

I don't don't even know what's wrong, the grass is always greener
The rain looks cleaner on somebody else's beamer
Don't wanna go outside, just wanna stay inside
Of my pretty apartment

I like to hide away, hide away from it all
Hide away cos I'm safe behind these walls
Hide away, hide away
Yeah, I hide away, hide away

I wish, I wish I was one of those happy people
One of those easy breezy, fucking people
I wish, I wish I was one of those happy people
Smiling every time they see you

But I'm crying now on the bedroom floor
I got everything, why do I want more?
Why do I want more?
Why do I want more?
Oh no, no, no, no

I wish, I wish I was one of those happy people
One of those easy breezy, mother fucking people
I wish, I wish I was one of those happy people
Smiling every time they see you

But I'm crying now on the bedroom floor
I got everything, why do I want more?
Why do I want more?
