

Falling from Lucifer's Grace

Wumpscut

Have been sent, have been sent by him
We're too good, we're too good for him

Oh, when you're falling from Lucifer's grace
It's when you're sent back to God's damned own race

Mercy will not be your final redeem
Don't hope for nothing and don't try to scream

Oh, when you're falling from Lucifer's grace
It's when you're sent back to God's damned own race

Don't hope, don't try...
Don't deem, don't scream..
