

Your Sweet Lies (Turned Down My Sheets Again)

Wynette Tammy

You know you can have me anytime you want me
For you have the key that always lets you in Every time you leave I swear this time it's over
But your sweet lies just turned down my sheets again

As you love me and then tell me I'm pretty
Those words I need to hear them now and then
I believe you one more time because I love you
And your sweet lies just turned down my sheets again
Hum hum hum hum hum hum hum

As you take me and then tell me you love me
Those words I need to hear them now and then
I'll believe you one more time because I love you
And your sweet lies just turned down my sheets again
Hum hum hum hum hum hum hum
