

Every Ending (Is a New Beginning)

Wynonna Judd

My faith whispers "Keep on going
Might be a miracle just over that hill"
There ain't no way I'm gonna ever know it standing still
I'll keep trying and fear can't stop me
Close my eyes, let my spirit run free
I feel my heart when I'm dreaming
That's how I see

Life's a journey, not a destination
I can't let myself forget
One day there's gonna be a celebration
God's not through with me yet

No one's asking "What are you doing?"
God's gonna tell me when it can be done
Love's gonna sing out and help me get there
I've just begun

Life's a journey, not a destination
I can't let myself forget
One day there's gonna be a celebration
God's not through with me yet
Every ending is a new beginning

I'm gonna start right now only way that I know how I'll take a step, then take another step

Life's a journey, not a destination
I can't let myself forget
One day there's gonna be a celebration
God's not through with me yet
Life's a journey, not a destination
I can't let myself forget
One day there's gonna be a celebration
God's not through with me yet
Every ending is a new beginning

Every ending is a new beginning
Every ending is a new beginning
Amen
