

Older

Yael Naim

Into the light, older She doesn't fight, call her losing her mind, colder
It doesn't feel right, ending so fast

So dream, swim, within, with him

Cannot rewind, tell her She will be fine, hold her thinking how strong you love her, feeling so sad, staying in bed

So dream, swim, within, with him

Now we could swim all over the sea you and me, I will follow you wherever you're going all those years are passing by now but it's over, still, I'm here beside you before you're leaving

So dream, swim, within, with him

Now this is our story, my eyes are blurry but please don't worry the light will take you high you can fly
