

She Said

Yael Naim

She said, he said: when you're gone
Will it really matter where are you're from?
She said, he said: when you're strong
Are you really happy if you're so alone?

You can never reach it
You can never keep it
You can never steal it
You will only feel it when you fall

I try to chill, I try to stop being so mad
But it's hard to do it if I'm scared
Try to feed, try to fill the hole
But I don't ever feel I've reached the goal

You can never reach it
You can never keep it
You can never steal it
You will only feel it when you fall

Why do you complain?
You got everything you dreamed of
What are you trying to obtain?
You got everything you wished for
Go out and play today
Here's what you're looking for
Go out and seize the day
Here's what you're looking for
What you're looking for is in your life

Try to see what's in my soul
But I can never reach it when I need control
I try to wake, try to make up my mind
But it's hard to get there when I'm blind

I can never reach it (you can never reach it)
I can never keep it (you can never keep it)
And I can never steal it (you can never steal it)
And I will only feel it when I fall

It's in your mind, in your soul, you are whole
It's what you find when you're lone that makes you grow

One day you will live it
One day you'll believe it
One day you will give it
One day you'll forgive it

You can never reach it
You can never keep it
You can never steal it
You will only feel it when you fall

She said, he said: when you're gone
Will it really matter where are you're from?
She said, he said: when you're strong
Are you really happy if you're so alone

She said, he said: when you're gone
Will it really matter?
