

Watching You

Yael Naim

Wanted it all this time
But I thought it couldn't be mine
Carried all the blame
I felt so much shame
And I've seen your darkest night
And I've seen you fight for light
I'm keeping you inside
I have nowhere to hide

And I'm watching you go insane
I'm watching you go in pain
I'm watching you
I'm watching you
And I'm watching you go insane
I'm watching you go in pain
I'm touching you
I'm calling you

Seasons will come and go
Wait for the answers to grow
When I see your light
Feels like everything's right
But I don't have the courage
To climb this mountain to you
So many times we fall
I will whisper the truth

And I'm watching you go insane
I'm watching you go in pain
I'm watching you
I'm touching you
And I'm watching you go insane
I'm watching you go in pain
I'm feeling you
I'm carrying you
And I'm watching you go insane
I'm watching you go in pain
I bleed with you
I'm feeding you
And I'm watching you go insane
I'm watching you go in pain
I'm holding you
I'm leaving you
Finding you
Catching you
