

Never Leave the Sun

Yanni

Follow you out of a restless day
Walking a road where a dream can change
You caught me there where my mind was lost
Trying to make sense

Show me the world with an open heart
Looking inside everything you are Hold me there when I learn to trust
Trying to make sense of us

You tell me that I'm strong enough
I wanna run away I wanna fly into your arms
And never leave the sun
Oh I, I will never leave the sun

Somewhere between wanting to believe and taking a chance that you promise me
Somewhere between every morning dawn
And giving in to love

You tell me that I'm strong enough
I wanna run away
I wanna fly into your arms
And never leave the sun
Oh I, I will never leave the sun

Never gonna leave the sun
Tell me...

You tell me that I'm strong enough
I'm never gonna leave the sun
I want to fly into your arms
I'm never gonna leave the sun

You tell me that I'm strong enough
I wanna run away I wanna fly into your arms
And never leave the sun
Oh I, I will never leave the sun

You tell me that I'm strong enough
I'm never gonna leave the sun
I'm never gonna leave the sun
