

Alive By Machine

Youth Brigade

It could be late one nite or the middle of the day bone-crushin g accident or the pain of slow decay can the young life fight w ill the old one fade away the miracle of science saves them ano ther day alive by machine better than faith hope & dreams alive by machine is this really life support when one cannot be aliv e probably not less than thirty years ago alive without a life me i'm better off dead outside the window the sounds of life go on but in this lonely place the rhythm is forlorn keep you bea ting breathing feeding never think or feel life is more than fu nctions of the body and a prayer
