I Don't Care

Zebra

I don't care if you say to me "bye bye"
I can't wait around for you to realize. Uh oh

I say I don't care if you get lonely
Well, I have babied you enough
Don't go thinking you're the only
Pretty little woman to have it so rough

Let the party now begin
You never let me see you cry. Uh oh

Oh, I have given you every chance
I'm not here to tell you lies. Oh no

I said I don't care if you get lonely
Oh, I have babied you enough

Don't go thinking you're the only
Pretty little woman to have it so rough

Well I didn't need you before, but I cried
I'm not going to fall. And it can't be mine
And then I'm gonna take your heart
And the rest are mine. I will save them all
The rest are mine

No, I don't care if you get lonely
I have babied you enough
Don't go thinking you're the only
Pretty little woman to have it so rough
