The Space Between

Now that you're older Taking the time to look Back over your shoulder On the days confusion took

Now that you're wiser Surely you've learned to read it You should know No surface shines brighter Than the light that burns beneath it

Never so sure We always take more Though we still don't know what it's for

Now that I've seen you Stripped to the very core I know that I need you Less than I did before

Never so sure We always take more Though we still don't know what it's for
