You've got your blind indecisions of all the things they say This is your life this time, live it how you may Give one man power to kill, and one man hands to heal Left one man suffering, all I want is everything

All I want is... All I want is. All I want is everything!

They've got the door wide open, won't you walk on in? We're going for a freak ride, won't you take a spin? Okay this will be the last chance, so now make it right If someone tries to stop you, stand your ground and fight

Give one man power to kill, and one man hands to heal Left one man suffering, all I want is everything

All I want is... All I want is. All I want is everything!

Everything. All I want. Everything. All I want. Everything.

Give one man power to kill, and one man hands to heal Give one man everything, still others left suffering

The thrill of living, stay on the right path When death is calling, you can't take it all back Can't take it all back. Take it all back.

Give one man power to kill, and one man hands to heal Left one man suffering, all I want is everything Give one man power to kill, and one man hands to heal Left one man suffering, all I want is everything

All I want. Everything. All I want is e verything

All I want. Everything. All I want. Everything. All I want is e verything

All I want. Everything. All I want. Everything. All I want is e verything
