

Blue Velvet

070 Shake

Blue
That blue velvet
You wore the first night that I felt it
I felt the touch of you
I'm worried I could lose you any second
I'll always remember
That blue velvet
You wore the first night that I felt it
I felt the touch of you
I'm worried I could lose you any second
I'll always remember

I'm not running straight
I'm running in circles
The love that I thought I had
I don't deserve you
Now that it's over
I'm reminded of you
When I see the color
My primary thought becomes you
I just can't lose sight
I got so damn high
Almost lost my mind

Yea
I'm lookin' everywhere for ya
Yea
Have you seen her before ah
Yea
Does time exist under the ocean?
Yea
I think we should go there

Blue velvet
You wore the first night that I felt it
I felt the touch of you
I'm worried I could lose you any second
I'll always remember
That blue velvet
You wore the first night that I felt it
I felt the touch of you
I'm worried I could lose you any second
I'll always remember

I just can't lose sight
I got so damn high
Almost lost my mind

Yea
Yea
Yea
Does time exist under the ocean?
Yea

I think we should go there

Blue velvet

You wore the first night that I felt it

I felt the touch of you

I'm worried I could lose you any second

I'll always remember
