

The Unknown

10 Years

How did we end up here
Sifting through our own ashes?
Our fires burned brighter
We were a beautiful disaster

Traveling at speeds
Where we couldn't see
Anything that passed us
But no one can survive
At the speed of life forever

We are miles from where we were
Lost in a wanderlust
But time moves on and carries us
Into the wild of the great unknown

Far beyond the horizons
We'll leave what's left of our ashes
Where we can free these faded memories
Forever (Ever, ever, ever)

We are miles from where we were
Lost in a wanderlust
But time moves on and carries us
Into the wild of
Of the great unknown
Of the great unknown

We are miles from where we were
Lost in a wanderlust

We are miles from where we were
Lost in a wanderlust
But time moves on and carries us
Into the wild of
Of the great unknown
Of the great unknown

But time moves on and carries us
Into the wild of
The great unknown
The great unknown
