

Suffer

100 Demons

my hatred is unstoppable and death for you will be so slow your sins are unforgivable and your god can't save you now i'll be your judge and jury sometimes justice moves to slow and i will show you no mercy when i drop the final blow too many times you fucked me over too many times i believed your shit i smell your fear and weakness and it makes me fucking sick i know you heard my cries saw the faith in my eyes then you turned your back on me made me suffer alone
