If only I could freeze your heart into ice
So I can prevent it from going bad
I would lock up the refrigerator door
To keep you just as you are

If only I could deposit your heart in a bank
Into a savings account
The more time that passes
The more your heart will increase

Your heart is like a reed leaf
And the wind mindlessly blows into it
Your heart is a like a sheet of paper
And the rain endlessly falls

If only I could lock your heart with a password
And place it in a hidden folder
No matter who touches it
No one would be able to open it

Your heart is like a reed leaf
And the wind mindlessly blows into it
Your heart is a like a sheet of paper
And the rain endlessly falls

Your heart and my heart
Even if the wind blows and rain fall
So it could never change and stay just as they are
