

I don't want you to think
This could be anything
Other than me confessing
How much I L-O-V...E you
Pray to God all my life
Put my hands to the sky
'Cuz I realize you're my blessin'
And I do; I do need you

Tell you every chance I get
Ever since the day I met ya
I'll live life without regret
You made it right when I went left
Sweetest soul I've ever met
Baby I can't live without you
You know that it's true

So I said, baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
My sweet baby (my sweet baby)
I could say a bunch of things
But they all mean the same thing
I'ma keep it simple and plain
Girl, I love ya
I love you

I ain't no dictionary, no I may not say
The greatest phrases to show you how I feel
My forte ain't wordplay, no
Diamond rings don't say a thing
But look into my eyes and they would tell you I'm for real
But I still...

Tell you every chance I get
Ever since the day I met ya
I'll live life without regret
You made it right when I went left
Sweetest soul I've ever met
Baby I can't live without you
You know that it's true

So I said, baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
My sweet baby (my sweet baby)
I could say a bunch of things
But they all mean the same thing
I'ma keep it simple and plain
Girl, I love ya
I love you
Baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
My sweet baby (my sweet baby)
I could call you my queen
Say you mean the world to me

I'ma keep it simple and plain
Girl, I love ya
I love you

I could call you mon cherie amour
I could say the one that I adore
Honestly if love was something like a battlefield
And you're the one I'm fighting for
My best friend
My good thing
First lady of my church
More than simple and plain
When I try to explain it
You're my heaven on earth

Baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
My sweet baby (my sweet baby)
I could say a bunch of things
But they all mean the same thing
I'ma keep it simple and plain
Girl, I love ya
I love you
Baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
Baby (baby)
My sweet baby (my sweet baby)
I could call you my queen
Say you mean the world to me
I'ma keep it simple and plain
Girl, I love ya
I love you
