

True Colors

112

Never love again
Is how I feel when I
Think of all the time I
Wasted on you (on you)
I'm done praying for you (Amen)
God knows this is hopeless
It's time that I make
My move (My move)
Girl I've given everything
I've drained myself dry
Just to keep
You satisfied (satisfied)
Done playing your games (games)
I'm throwing in the towel
Before I lose my mind

'Cuz now I
See your true colors
You ain't no lover, no friend
So the time has come
To pull back the covers
What we had's come to an end

It's hard for me to see
I was so blind girl to
Think we could be
Much more (much more)
Once so open (open)
Now I take back the keys to my Heart and I'm locking the door (door)
So many times around
We've gone
I've got too damn dizzy
I don't think you hear me
(Don't make a sound)
A moment of silence
'Cuz this love is dead
And you're out of my head

Now I
See your true colors
You ain't no lover, no friend
So the time has come
To pull back the covers
What we had's come to an end

Patience; I've tried
You repaid me in lies; I mean
I'm far from perfect
Just thought this was worth it
Empty promises
Gave me so much less
Then I was worried
Thinking baby I deserve
But you don't wanna (get it right)
All you wanna do is fight
Addicted to drama

Gon' leave it to karma

'Cuz now I
See your true colors
You ain't no lover, no friend
So the time has come
To pull back the covers
What we had's come to an end
And now I
See your true colors
You ain't no lover, no friend
So the time has come
To pull back the covers
What we had's come to an end
