

Where Would I Be

112

Tell me where would I be
Oh, oh
Tell me where would I be
Oh, oh, yea

I remember hard rains and stormy nights
When I couldnt see the road
Headed down the path of destruction
See I couldnt get out of my own way
Instead of doing wrong (to myself)
Wanted it all to end
Right Then
Thats when a sad good chance came
And it started with you
Thank you for rebuilding me
Girl where would I be

Where would I be
If there was no use
Tell me where would I find
If you wasnt my sky
If you wasnt my strength
Tell me where would I be
Cause girl you brought me through
Heaven and back again
Where would I be

Baby where would I be
(Tell me where would I be)
Oh, oh, oh

Girl you're my angel
Girl you're my high
Now you're my reason
To live my life
And Im never going to leave your side
Together we will survive
You've been there for me
Ill be there for you
We'd be growing strong
Like lovers do
(You believed in me
When I wouldnt do it so good)
And almost giving up
And it started with you
Thank you for rebuilding me
Baby where would I be

Baby where would I be
If there was no use
Cause girl you brought me through

Heaven and back again
Where would I be

Your love is unconditional
And would never fade away
No matter where I've been
You've always been there
Through thick and thin
We wont stop
We will fight till the end
To the end
Where would I be

Baby where would I be
If there was no use
If you wasnt my sky
If you wasnt my strength
Cause girl you brought me through
Where would I be

Where would I be
Where would I be
(Where would I be)
Tell me where would I be
Yea yea yea
Where would I be
To say that I am a good man
As a strong mammoth
Cus girl you brought through
