

Before The Dawn

(Kid Class)

(B Dub)

It's always darkest before the dawn
(So dark, yeah, so dark, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
When I thought all hope was lost, You would steady Your arm
(Steady Your arm)
It's always darkest before the dawn
(Darkest before the dawn)
When I thought all hope was lost, You would steady Your arm
(Woah, yeah, look)

So where do I start? (Where?)
I was a broken kid with a broken heart
Life told me that I gotta go back
But I wouldn't move like Rosa Parks (True)
God told me that I gotta keep faith (Yeah)
Change my name from sinner to son
This suffering right now, I feel was hard
But won't compare to the joy that comes
How many times did I cry these tears
And I felt like no one could hear my pain?
How many times did I run like PR
And felt like God wouldn't break the chain?
I had no words to say
My light was dim, the sky was grey
But then my Father told me, "Pray"
("Lord, please hear what I say")
Lord, our Father, You art in Heaven (Yeah)
Oh, hallowed be Thy name
I need Your strength, I need Your love
To help me make it through the rain (Yeah)
Whenever I feel like I have no chance
And there's no way You'll save
I go to Your empty tomb and remember
What You did for me at the grave (Amen)
So Heavenly Father, I thank You (Yeah)
'Cause I know that You will win
The light will overcome the dark
Just like You overcame my sin (That's true)
My friend, my Lord (Yeah, yeah)
We laugh, we mourn (Yeah)
But joy comes in the mornin'
It's always darkest before the dawn (Let's go)

It's always darkest before the dawn
(So dark, yeah, so dark, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
When I thought all hope was lost, You would steady Your arm
(Steady Your arm)
It's always darkest before the dawn
(Darkest before the dawn)
When I thought all hope was lost, You would steady Your arm
(Woah, yeah, true, true, true, true, true, true, true, true, true)

Dear Lord, I wanna say thank You (Thank You)
'Cause when I felt there wasn't no hope (Felt there wasn't no hope)
It was You that told me

To keep on going and climb that slope
I wanted to quit, but You told me "No" (You told me "No")
Have faith (Yeah)
Set my eyes on things not seen (Things not seen)
And be brave
That's why I'm callin' Your name all day (Jesus)
It's only by Your grace (Only by Your grace)
So when you see me walk in confidence
It's 'cause I'm saved
This that joy that used to be rage
This that boy that came of age (True, true, true, true, true)
This that lost soul
That You came and rescued out of the maze
Thank You (Thank You, Jesus)
Thank You
'Cause before the dawn, it was darkness (True, true, true)
And I was movin' heartless
But You still showed love regardless
You gave me all the strength I needed
To render the enemy harmless (Yeah)
From just one touch on Your garment
Now I walk with You, covered in armor (Doot-doot-doot)
I've come a long way
From livin' in villainous ways
Now my life is for givin' You praise
Tomorrow is Yours, I live for today (Yeah, yeah)
Yeah, and I walk with faith
Knowin' it's You by my side (True)
Thank You for renewin' my life (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

It's always darkest before the dawn
(So dark, yeah, so dark, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
When I thought all hope was lost, You would steady Your arm
(Steady Your arm)
It's always darkest before the dawn
(Darkest before the dawn)
When I thought all hope was lost, You would steady Your arm
(Woah, yeah)
