

Heavy water
That falls all over me
I asked her
Then I fell asleep
I don't believe I asked her
No I don't believe I did
I believe I fell asleep
Tonight
stop the pilot
The pilot's flown so high
So high I'll never come back down
So I closed my eyes
I do not trust in my conscience
And I don't believe in wine
I believe you've made your point to me
Your point to me
is the girl sun and her distant places
Girl sun and her fickle faces
You're so bright that I closed my eyes so long
That now you're gone
I asked for heaven
Then she asked me for time
So I gave her mine
Yeah I gave her mine
I do not trust in science
And I don't believe in god
I believe you've made your point to me
Your point to me
is the girl sun and her distant places
Girl sun and her fickle faces
You're so bright that I closed my eyes so long
That now
You're a girl sun who lights my way
Girl sun to whom I pray
You're so bright that I closed my eyes so long That now, that...
ba ba ba ba ba ba ba ba-a-ah ba ba ba ba-a
Ba ba ba ba ba ba ba ba-a-ah ba ba ba ba-a
Ba ba ba ba ba ba ba ba-a-ah ba ba ba ba-a
Ba ba ba ba ba ba ba ba-a-ah ba ba ba ba-a the sun seems so far away
The sun stings my eyes
She my girl sun
A sting that hurt my eyes
I didn't realize that I closed my eyes so long that now you're gone
