Hide Without Delay

12 Rods

Woke in commotion
At 4 in the morning
I got [?] for high stakes crimes
I thought that we were falling in love

How did you get the rug, and who you know?
'Cause you need all the projection
These traces that you leave behind
Straight tell me what you're up to
You don't want that to happen
I'm not supposed to know
It's so cool to live your life as a klepto
Staring at your future like the pull that gets you far
But I don't really think so, but ohhhhh

Hide without delay
Oh, hide without delay

You're totally why I got this false information
So I [?] move, and tell you how much I want you
Cause if you walk the walk, we're gonna stroll in the park
Those eyes are just staring at the dark
You don't want that to happen
I've read up on all the rules
It won't be long, I bide my time
And snatch up the jewels
I promise you for real
I never have to lie
Telling yourself alibis
Hide without delay
Oh, hide without delay

The pain in your eyes
Tells a story
And the heat from your hands
Tells a story
And the heat from your hands...
Tell the story
Hide without delay
Hide without delay
Oh hide without delay
Shame on you
Don't you wanna tell me something?
If not, shame on you
Don't you wanna tell me something?
If not, shame on you
