

Private Spies

12 Rods

You wanna know
Where does your boyfriend go to be alone?
All those calls you can't hear on the telephone

If I told you a secret
Will you promise not to get so mad?
Boys act the private spies
Secretly lie-proof

I will play your little info games
And don't repeat the words that frown your face
All those calls were just bullshizz anyway

Private spies, inc'd and united
They're everywhere, all you gotta do
Is ring a little bell, whenever you're in trouble
Spies to the rescue for you

What was that note that she left on your pillow?

Yo, I thought we had an agreement, hey

I say it to you again
You don't gotta worry 'bout nothing at all
