Anthem for the Underdog

You say you know just who I am But you can't imagine What waits for you across the line You thought you had me But I'm still here standing And I'm tired of backing down

And I'm here now feeling the pain Of a thousand hearts Been to hell and back again I won't take this

You try so hard to bring me down You can't break the broken You still don't seem to understand It's your turn to see just How it feels to be me How it feels to be knocked down

And you're here now feeling the pain Of a thousand hearts You've been to hell and back again You can't take this

Remember This feeling

How it feels to be alive Now you see me through my eyes And we're here now feeling the beat Of a thousand hearts Coming back to life again We can make it

Remember This feeling Remember...
