

Unstoppable momentum
Pandemonium supreme
Unstoppable destruction
Cataclysm supreme
Primis Terra anthropocene
Enter into obscurity

Relentless wave, the instant death
Cascading oceans, the instant shift
Alhabor rise, cleaving continents
Orion's dawn, the first extinction

The ash of ages, obscured by dust
The ash of ages, frozen in time
The ash of ages, the eternal ones
The ash of ages, erased, all secret wisdom lost

Relentless wave, the instant death
Cascading oceans, the instant shift
Alhabor rise, cleaving continents
Orion's dawn, the first extinction

The ash of ages, obscured by dust
The ash of ages, frozen in time
The ash of ages, the eternal ones
The ash of ages, immortalized in sacred stone

Like skeleton cathedrals under mountains of ash
Where arcane empires flourished and ancient realms were crushed
Continents dead adrift left in blackened embers
As time is slowly turning moons and stones to dust
Crushing the foundations of the temple-planet

Like necrotic threads of burning rust through time
Deep down the spirals of rotting primordial oceans
Spectres from the remains of lost realms haunted past
Crawling upon the black mat of the younger dryas

The rivers of life have dwindled
Like the sunset of a dying God
World of lost horizons
Crushed by wheels of time
Under the star of stars
Withered by the passing of time
Like the last fading rays of the sun
Ancestral blood, forever underfoot
Antediluvian death knell
Storms of Ouroboros
Kings of Algolian bloodline
Your ghosts in all traces lost...

The ash of ages, obscured by dust
The ash of ages, frozen in time
The ash of ages, the eternal ones
The ash of ages, in hidden recesses of the mind

Antediluvian death knell

Storms of Ouroboros
Kings of Algolian bloodline
Your ghosts in all traces lost
