

Upset, unfed, I incite you sacrifice all the makeshift
Superficial liars off of the surface
Fall to your desires, cause an emergence of reckoning
Never hesitate to sever the relation
How clever the pretenders weather our defenses
Never for the better
Embers will replace them, they'll erase them all
Center the fixation, enter, then deplete it
You're the cause, fuck your solution

Upset, unfed, I incite you sacrifice all the makeshift
Superficial liars off of the surface
Fall to your desires, I'm fueling the fire
I've never been so irate, irate, I don't relate
Never have I stumbled on a blessing, I have tarnished my name
Shortened my days, unfollowed faith
Stepped aside, to watch the burning bridges I have

And we've always known
No surprise that you're still just a bitch

Don't forget you're talking to
My constraints resemble you
So, I changed the shade, and darkened the fuckin' hue
It's all the same
It's all the same
