You shouldn't think like me
You shouldn't be like me

When a man gets a sign
From the gods above
It's a light - she's a rose
In my abyss of doom
There's a sun
And a moon involved

That's daddy's little girl
And she'll never fail

She's a gift, giving life
To a broken man
There's a shift, it's a blessing
To have a daughter my own
She's a force
Above all mankind

That's daddy's little girl
And she'll never fail

Just like I did

You shouldn't think like me
You shouldn't be like me
