throw it away
bury it deep
little things you are I'm losing sleep
ten thousand miles
you reek of it
you reek of shit
damage I can't believe I fell for you and your damage when you're in a room
filling tents
glassy eyes
and whore like scents
I should've known
a wreck inside
all your ghosts
are reaching out
drowning in your lies
holding on your words
fear in your eyes
blood in my teeth
parasite
ugly
