

Ghost

16volt

i sift with eyeless admiration i sieve your layers through and through i feel with starving fixation i have a need i must subdue and i see from you afar and i select you

and i breathe you from afar and i collect you

i have unhealthy adoration your something i can't ever have i stir in total desperation without you here i know i'll snap and i know you from afar and i dissect you

and i keep you from afar and i protect you

i can't take this ache it's more than i can take this is all one big mistake if i can't fly i will break i see from you afar

and i select you
i want you from afar
and i collect to you
