

The End Of It All

16volt

Don't talk me down
Just let me go
I'm at the place
Where I just know
There is no point
To see this through
There's nothing left
For us to do

I am the one with the heart made of stone
You cannot judge, call this off on your own

Don't cry
You are not alone
It's the end of it all
It's the end of it all

You'll know when the rain is gone
Because the dark isn't done
And the gray goes away
It's the end of it all x4

There's nothing to mend
There's nothing to change
There's nothing to fix
There's no more to gain
There's nothing to heal
There's nothing to sew
There's nothing to come
And nothing to grow

Don't cry
You are not alone
It's the end of it all
It's the end of it all

You'll know when the rain is gone
Because the dark isn't done
And the gray goes away
It's the end of it all (4x)
