

To Hell

16volt

i could come up with another way to keep things perfect for you then you could finally be happy then you'd stop blowing up at me i could come up with another way to tell you i'm leaving you then we could finally have closure then you could finally forget me i swore you were the one for me i feared it would come to this i cared only for knowing you i'm scared that it's all going down
to hell
i could forgive your shortcomings if you'd promise to be different then we'd finally be together then we'd finally live forever
