

Useless People

16volt

and heaven told me the truth that i had something to do and it's to end the facade and it's a mission from god head up son
just like an animal i come over vilified
where malevolence becomes from end the end of the worst place to the face of the blessed i'm an army of evil that nobody can suppress and now i know my way the path was given to me and it's the life that i'll take that makes me finally awake i am the seeker in the dark and i will break you all apart now there is nothing i can't do cause my commitment is true cause it's now head up son
i am an army of evil that nobody can suppress useless fking people spreading themselves everywhere empty they come breeding more awful human beings fk you
there's something wrong with everyone of us
fk you
there's not a single one that i'd ever trust
fk you
fk you
fk you
