

You Will All Go Down

16volt

falling down from the sky the come down where we are all gonna die no one, not even god himself will give up anymore of anything else and falling down, it's my favorite thing to do just stay with me, and you will soon fall down to that's everything, there's nothing left that we can do it's happening, and you will all end up anything else

you will all go down in a ball of flames
