God good, ain't He? I'm a livin' testimony
I was trippin', sippin', pop prescription, livin' fast and die slowly
Comatose, posted with the mob, tryna be Cosa Nostra
Off the dope, slump turned me up 'til I'm overdosin', ugh
I'm playin' with my life (Huh?), ain't know I was chosen (Yeah)
Speak that good gospel to me, my soul awoken (Yeah)
I was movin' ounces, now I'm movin' mountains
Now I'm castin' demons out, and God and 'em brought some angels 'round me (Yeah)

Let me tell you 'bout the time my baby boy came back to life
Type of test only God could get you through to testify
He came out the womb purple and blue, no sign of life
Wifey held her for a second, but the moment passed her by
Got the rhythm out her arms and had to pull him to the side
Wife and I sat in silence with a ocean in her eyes
Felt the tides, turned to Jesus when I felt the water rise

Held my breath, prayin' heavy 'til we finally heard him-

God is good, ain't He?

God is good, ain't He?

God is good, ain't He?

God is good, ain't He? (Good, ain't He?)

He gon' do it, won't He? (He gon' do it)

He gon' do it, won't He? (He gon' do it, won't He?)

He gon' do it, won't He? (Won't He do it?)

He gon' do it, won't He? (Let's go)
