

Better Days

1K Phew

I know life's been hard, grass greener on the other side of the yard
Hustle till you fall, might not be here tomorrow
Go jump out the porch and let 'em know who you are

I do not care what you think (Huh)
Gotta keep giving Him thanks (Huh)
Came up for real I feel blank (Huh)
Got out the field I feel blank (Huh)
Don't wanna swim in the sink (Huh)
I'm the one keeping it frank (Huh)
Nothing will stop me when I crank (Huh)
And I'm still breaking the bank

How could I kill my freedom out here for a lil flame (Yeah)
Whole hood know I'm coming through still no shame (Yeah)
I can see faith from a mile away why're you so lame (Yeah)
It's a whole lot of ya throwing shade over my name (Yeah)
It's a whole lot of ya throwing shade over my people
I ain't feel a lot of ya'll, lately I've been fighting off evil
It's a lot of problems that coming in when you against evil
But He rose

After working long days time to go celebrate
Had to rise up and bust a move why would I hesitate
We wanna see them better days, better days, better days
Come a long way from yesterday, yesterday, yesterday
Head on strong I'm Hercules, I ain't gonna blame nobody as long as it's up to me (Up to me)
I wanna see them better days, better days, better days
We wanna see them better days, better days, better days
Yeah

Huh, my name to the wind, they thought it fell on Saturday
Sunday I'm gonna ride around the city making plays
Shining with the Son and now we finally on the raise
I know it some folks still amazed cause we next up
Got them checks up with the fam
Twenty-three remember me, Space Jam
Legendary in my own lane, yes I am
Let 'em know, don't you know
I got really good time on my watch
Pulling up shooting my shot, gotta go up like why not
I'm gonna show you what I got
I got really good time on my watch
Pulling up shooting my shot, gotta go up like why not

I know life's been hard, grass greener on the other side of the yard
Hustle till you fall, might not be here tomorrow
Go jump out the porch and let 'em know who you are

Yeah

They say, I don't really care about what they say
Yeah
