

Only One

1K Phew

You are, you are...
You the only, ayy

You are the only one in my zone to never go phony
3 in the morning, still in the motion, 3 in the morning
I'm in Daytona, really no reason, do what I wanna
Took a lil' longer, had to go leave and now I'm a goner
You are the only one that I need, I'll never be lonely
Look at the old me, had to get to it just like you told me
You are the one that kept me up when I'm leaning
You my drug when I'm fiendin'
Through all the long nights and the grieving
Stayed above, never even
Chasing my dreams, I'm on the run
Holding my weight up, I weigh a ton
Start up your wings and we jump a gun
Told y'all we did it, we got it done
We are the ones, the only ones
Remember them days of havin' nothin'
That was in the rain, now I see the sun
Now when I tee up, it's a hole in one
Took a minute, but we slowly won
Need a sign, come and show me one
In the field, I'ma grow me one
Giving thanks to the Holy One
Might as well let the real be known
Tell the world that we really on
Real kings never need a throne, yeah

You are the only one (You)
Yeah (You)
Ayy, you are the only one (You)
You're the one that I need (You)
You're the, uh
You're the, yeah
You're the only, you're the, yeah
You're the only, you're the, yeah
We're the, only, we're the, ayy
You're the, ayy
