Saved Me

1K Phew

Stoop, go stupid
You know, this been on my heart for a minute now
I ain't holding back no more

Even though y'all ain't seen this yet, just know we ready
Coming in with this water flooded on me, just broke the levy
Had to go pray a little harder, told my Father life is heavy
Jesus gon' take that wheel and he gon' whip it like a Chevy
I don't want to come in dead last
All my brothers right beside me and they steadfast
I ain't tryna go look for new friends, they get scared fast
Christians gon' look at me like I'm crazy if my pants sag
Some of these folks probably think I'm lazy, I got jet lag
Saving these souls around the globe, I do digits
And I got a gift, so I need my partner home for Christmas
Sitting in prison, reading the Scripture on forgiveness
Lord, forgive his

Could've been locked in cages when the police came and chased me (I could've

I just want to go to Heaven, I know Hell ain't got no AC
