Yeah

Yeah

(You set me free, free, free)

Alright

(You set me free, free, oh)

Truth will set you free, she turned my phone to a hotline

Yeah, she 5'6 but in them heels she like 5'9

I'ma get that chicken, Churches, KFC, Popeyes

I can feel her energy as soon as we lock eyes

Yeah I graduated, I ain't judging if you dropped out

Passive income, this is a wave, pull the yacht out

Yeah I'm from the block, all you heard was blocka

Devil tried to come in, I told him get the fuck out

I believe in me, I'm a fashion God

I'm a pusha to the T, in a RR

This one is the SUV, the other one tomorrow

If you love what you do, it is not a job

Think I want an Audemars, bought an Audemars

Ask who taught me art of war, told 'em College Park

Partner came up for appeal, they ain't free my dawg

Other partner took a pill, it was fentanyl

Let me give ya the game, I can teach you something

Let me give ya the game, I can teach you something

Let me give ya the game, I can teach you something

Let me give ya the game, I can teach you something

(Truth will set you free, she turned my phone to a hotline)

(Told him get the fuck out)

(Set me free, free)

(Set me free, free)

(Set me free, free, free)

If I knew heaven felt like this

I been checked out lifetimes ago

Hard to fall in love

It ain't no love when you be on the road

I tell you I love then I love you girl, it's honorable

I tell you I love then I got you girl, I'm on the road

Ah babe, alright

Acting like my love don't mean nothing to you

You reconcile, reconcile the things I do
Who's to say all the things you heard about me are all just true

Bent over, got her screaming free the guys
Bent over, got her screaming free the guys
Got her screaming free the guys
Yeah... got her screaming free the guys

Free my dawgs for sure
Got her screaming free the guys, free my dawgs for sure
For sure... for sure, for sure, for sure, for sure
