

Southside Hov

2 Chainz

Feel high that you get from the lye
If you feel it, wave your L in the sky
Feel it, wave your L in the sky
L in the sky

I'm from the Southside where it's lukewarm
Where niggas set you up for robbery and help you look for 'em
I've been a stepper, I walk around with my own shoe horn
This type of flow, I give the opposition goosebumps
I saw my dad die and told that nigga, "Wake up"
My momma woke me up and asked me for a wake-up
You playin' checkers, I play chess like an eight-cup
I sold pounds, I ain't never have a paystub, uh
I'm from the gutter, diamonds studded, I am too for real
Name another rapper that got a Versace shoe deal
The turkey bags next to the digit scales
I act a donkey, they just don't know where to pin the tail
I'm sick for real ever since Enfamil
Tiffany colored blicker shells the size of zinfandels
Got Riverdale in my fingernails
I got the suit from Miguel, I know it fit me well, uh
Lentil soup, I'm on my health kick
I'm 'bout to sell Most Expensivest to Netflix
I put slapping p*ssy niggas on my checklist

I think they think I'm soft ever since I had kids
It take me everything not to throw it all away
You did some stupid shit and left your chick with all the babies
And when I call just to ask her if she need somethin'
She said, "Yeah, me and my friend want a threesome"
So Help Me God
L in the sky
Give 'em, if you feel it, wave your L in the sky
Don't bite the hand that feed you
Don't talk behind his back, they won't believe you
Wave your L in the sky
Whether it's legal or illegal
If you feel it, wave your L in the
Whether you valet or a boss, we born equal
If you feel it, wave your L in the sky
You know the root of all evil
They say it's money, but money help people
L in the sky
If, if, if, if, if, if, if you feel it, wave your L in the sky
Feel high that you get from the lye
If you feel it, wave your L in the sky
They say it's money, but the money help people
Feel it, wave your L in the sky
They say it's money, but the money help people
L in the sky
Feel it, wave your L in the sky
